All references in this Privacy Notice to BioVid include BioVid and its parent, subsidiary and affiliated companies. All references to "us" or "we" refer to BioVid.

This Website Privacy Notice ("Privacy Notice") describes the types of information we collect, how we collect the information, how we use the information, how we share or disclose the information, how we store the information, and your choices regarding the use and processing of the information.

WE PROTECT YOUR PRIVACY

BioVid is committed to protecting the privacy and security of all Personal Data ("Personal Data") collected or received by BioVid, BioVid strives to conform its privacy practices with applicable international, national, Federal, state and/or local laws and regulations. All references to BioVid in this Privacy Notice include BioVid's parents, subsidiaries and affiliates.

HOW WE COLLECT AND USE YOUR PERSONAL DATA

We collect Personal Data from you when you communicate with us by any media. We define Personal Data as any identifiable data relating to a natural person that is directly or indirectly collected, by us or a third party. We collect your Personal Data on a voluntary basis. If you request a quote or brochure, we may require that you provide specific information to ensure delivery and execution of your request. Any Personal Data that we collect is passed on to our sales department for follow-up or to provide any information you have requested.

Please note that this Privacy Notice only covers information that is gathered through this website. If you are a respondent or research participant who has participated in research with BioVid, please access our Research Participant Privacy Policy by clicking here.

WHY WE COLLECT PERSONAL DATA

We collect Personal Data for the following purposes:

- to keep you informed and obtain your views of our products, services and activities;

- to transfer Personal Data to any subsidiary or group company;
- statutory and regulatory compliance;
- to process any enquiries raised by you and other communications initiated by you in relation to your dealings with Research Now and any services provided by Research Now;
- to market our products and services, including those of its group companies and third party suppliers;
- when permitted by you, to send you marketing communications keeping you informed about our activities; and
- to achieve our general objectives.

In addition to the above, BioVid may use information it collects or receives as set forth in this Privacy Notice.

HOW DO WE COLLECT INFORMATION, INCLUDING PERSONAL DATA?

Information provided by you:

We collect the following Information submitted or provided by you:

- a. through or in connection with this website;
- b. through or in connection with business meetings with actual or potential customers or clients;
- c. through or in connection with promotions, meetings, events, and/or trade or industry shows or conferences sponsored by, hosted by, or attended by BioVid and/or BioVid's employees, representatives, and/or agents; and
- d. through telephone calls, email communications, and/or other forms of communication.

BioVid may collect information, including, without limitation, Personal Data, from third parties, including, without limitation, industry conference or event organizers or sponsors.

Information collected via Cookies:

Our website uses "cookies." Cookies are small text files that a website transfers to your computer's hard drive. We may use cookies to measure traffic patterns, personalize content, control security and to help us make our site more useful. The cookies we use do not supply Personal Data, but may identify your OS version, browser and Internet specifications. You have the choice to accept, reject or be notified when a site sets a cookie by configuring your browser preferences.

BioVid's websites may automatically gather and store certain information in log files, including, without limitation, data available from your web browser, including, without limitation: IP address, browser type, Internet service provider, referring/exiting pages, operating system, date/time stamp and click stream data.

HOW DO WE USE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

We may use your Personal Data, including information collected from third parties for various purposes, including, without limitation, to send you emails or other communications as described herein. In the event you receive such communications, you will have the opportunity to opt-out of receiving communications from us.

HOW DO WE SHARE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

BioVid does not sell your Personal Data and does not disclose your Personal Data except as described in this Privacy Notice or as otherwise consented to by you.

We may share your Personal Data, as follows:

- a. within the BioVid group of companies (with BioVid's parents, subsidiaries, and affiliates) and the directors, managers, officers, employees, consultants, and agents of these companies, subject to the terms of this Privacy Notice or as otherwise disclosed to you at the time of the collection of the information or as subsequently consented to by you;
- b. to service providers who are performing services on our behalf, including information technology hosting providers, cloud service providers, market research service providers, our agents, contractors or partners, whether engaged directly by BioVid or engaged by a third party. The service providers are authorized to use your Personal Data only as necessary to perform and provide the services for which they were engaged;
- c. in connection with the request or requirement of any lawful request by public authorities, to meet national security or law enforcement requirements;
- d. if we are required to do so pursuant to applicable laws or legal or court process, when we believe disclosure is necessary to prevent harm or financial loss, or in connection with an investigation of actual or suspected fraud or illegal activity;
- e. in the event we sell or transfer all or a portion of our business or assets. Should such a sale or transfer occur, we will require the other party (e.g., the surviving or resulting entity in a merger, or the acquiring entity in an acquisition) to agree in writing to use, protect, and maintain the security, integrity, and confidentiality of the transferred Personal Data in accordance with this Privacy Notice; and
- f. as otherwise permitted pursuant to this Privacy Notice or otherwise authorized by you.

BioVid will require others who acquire or provide Personal Data to BioVid, including those engaged to provide support services, to adopt and comply with the principles in this Privacy Notice. BioVid acknowledges its potential liability in cases of onward transfers to third parties.

We may maintain Personal Data or machine identifiable information in order to satisfy your requests and/or BioVid's business requirements.
